

The Essentials of Tres Dias

(July 2012)

1.0 Preamble

The TRES DIAS Movement endeavors to bring Christians to a closer, more personal walk with their Lord Jesus Christ and encourage them to Christian leadership and Apostolic Action in their environments.

TRES DIAS is based on the principles, the method, and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Cursillo movement initially proposed by Eduardo Bonnín and his fellow Christians. Each candidate goes through three phases of the TRES DIAS movement: the pre-weekend, the three-day weekend¹ and the Fourth Day. TRES DIAS is a Christian ecumenical movement.

"The founders of the Cursillo movement saw a world of great need around them. They knew that the answer to the needs of the world had to be Christ and His Grace; but ... they saw Christians who did not live for Christ, and they saw a church that was ... ineffective and without life. They developed the Cursillo to meet part of this problem: to provide any part of the church which was ready to undertake the formation of Christian life with all the people it needed -- people who would have the deep dedication to Christ and to bringing all peoples to Him -- people who would undertake a regular program of formation in Christianity, and who would make their Christian life conscious and vital -- people who would understand how to be part of a unified apostolic effort."²

The main teaching of TRES DIAS is God's unqualified love for each of us through grace. It asks each member of the TRES DIAS community to grow in their personal piety, to study God's Word and other Christian writings and to express their love for Christ in Christian Apostolic Action.

These three aspects of Christian growth are stressed in the cloistered environment called, "the weekend." An invitation is issued during the weekend for each Pescadore to join a small group of his/her own choosing for continued support, prayer and encouragement.

In order to ensure consistency and stability within the TRES DIAS Movement, there must be certain essential aspects to which all TRES DIAS organizations conform. These Essentials fall into two categories: those which are quantitative and those which are qualitative in nature. It is the intent of TRES DIAS to use both of these categories as criteria for chartering local secretariats.

It should therefore be the policy of local secretariats to comply with these Essentials. Policies of local secretariats which deviate from these Essentials must be reviewed on an individual basis and are subject to the approval of TRES DIAS.

2.0. Essentials of the Movement

1. TRES DIAS Is A Christian Movement.

The ultimate objective of the TRES DIAS movement is to strengthen and extend the Body of Christ. No TRES DIAS organization shall change the teachings or practices of the TRES DIAS Movement to accommodate the participation of non-Christians. For the purposes of these Essentials, "Christian" is intended to refer to those who are seeking a closer relationship with Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

2. TRES DIAS Is A Christian Ecumenical Organization.

All TRES DIAS organizations shall actively seek the participation of persons from all the Christian denominations in their environment. All TRES DIAS organizations shall stress those things which the Christian denominations have in common and respect those things which are different. All TRES DIAS organizations have the duty and the authority to protect the TRES DIAS ecumenical structure.

3. Tres Dias is a Lay-led Movement.

TRES DIAS is a lay-led organization; however, the active participation of the clergy is both essential and to be encouraged.

4. TRES DIAS is a Non-Profit Movement.

TRES DIAS organizations should pursue prudent fiscal policies. They shall avoid accumulating assets beyond what is required to carry out their part in the TRES DIAS Movement.

5. The TRES DIAS Movement Shall Not Assume the Role Of A Denomination

TRES DIAS is not a church-substitute; rather, it encourages Christians to worship and serve in their home congregations, as leaders.

6. Tres Dias Is Not A Service Organization

The TRES DIAS Movement encourages Pescadores to participate in "worthy projects." TRES DIAS organizations shall limit their activities to those related to carrying out the Tres Dias method.

3.0 The Essentials of the Tres Dias Method

1. The three sequential phases of an individual's involvement shall be: The Pre-Weekend phase, The Weekend phase, and The Fourth Day phase.
2. The object of the Pre-Weekend Phase is to prepare individuals for effective participation in the Weekend.
3. The purpose of the Weekend, in terms of method, is to prepare individuals for effective participation in the Fourth Day.

3.1 The Essentials of the Pre-Weekend Phase

1. That the candidate be sponsored for participation in all phases of the Tres Dias Movement, rather than just the Weekend.
2. That Candidates be sponsored by a member of a chartered Tres Dias community or similar community approved by TRES DIAS.
3. That candidates have a desire for a closer relationship with Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.
4. That candidates be accepted candidates from all Christian denominations.
5. That candidates be at least 21 years of age. However, if a local secretariat, using its best judgment, finds a sound and compelling reason (such as a spouse of a pescador, or military personnel), it OCCASIONALLY, on a case-by-case basis, may accept a candidate who is at least 18 years of age.

 - e. It includes a period of silent introspection, but it is not a retreat.
 - f. It is a renewal experience for Christians and is not necessarily a conversion experience.
 - g. It asks for basic faith, openness and seeking attitude on the part of the Candidate, but involves a great amount of dedication, prayer and careful planning on the part of the team.
 - h. It is an encounter with the Holy Spirit. However, TRES DIAS is not a "charismatic" movement.
 - i. The Weekend is a tool of God, not an end in itself. The weekend will not produce a permanent effect without Fourth Day activity.
2. The Spiritual Directors should be qualified to teach and counsel in spiritual matters.
